As to the leave question it is submd. that Venkataramaiya is entitled to ~~two~~ furlough for two years which may be granted to him in continuation of the privilege for a ~~period~~ period of not less than six months & not more than two years.

7 Only a sum of Rs 35/- (2 instalments of Rs 17/8 each) is due from the clerk towards full adjustment of the 1st & 2nd instalments house-building advance of Rs 420/- drawn by him in July 1910. & the balance will be recovered from his pay for July & August 1912, if he be allowed to draw any pay for three months.

The question of retiring him cannot arise now, as he is under 55 years of age. (his age is only 43) & has not yet been declared unfit for further Service;

With reference to the Secy's order, regarding my leave, I beg to make the following representation:-

The effect of the present order will be to make me suffer in 4 different ways. viz (1) my privilege leave already sanctioned will be cancelled (2) the period of absence will be converted into furlough on half pay (3) I will be made to forfeit to Government a sum of Rs 70/- or so, (4) Lastly I will not be able to get any furlough leave for another 6 years or so. Even if my absence from the date of expiry of my privilege leave were treated as leave without allowances, I would not have suffered so much.

I am also sorry to notice that the Secretary has formed an impression that I applied for extension of leave without pro- for reasons. Almost every one who knows me, is familiar with my domestic troubles. The privilege leave was first sanctioned to enable me to secure a Bridegroom for my daughter. I have not yet been able to secure one. Added to this, there are troubles ~~collected~~ both pecuniary and otherwise, and too numerous to be detailed here. I also felt the disappoint

-ment of my Supersession very keenly and ventured to resign - In short I may assure the Secretary that I had substantial reasons for applying for an extraordinary leave and that those reasons
exist even now and will continue, I do not know how long.
Under these circum-

Circumstances, I beg that the Secretary
may be so pleased
as to reconsider the order already passed,
accept and ~~[illegible]~~

the furlough leave
I already prayed for.

To

The Secretary to Government
General & Rev. Depts.

Sir,

I beg most respectfully to thank you for the endorsement No. 5-50/G.M. 14-11-20 G. 31.7.12., regarding the grant of furlough leave and pension before resigning my appointment. At the receipt of this I feel I am blindfolded and the prospects, which seemed as being open to me when I submitted my representation, are cut both ways, with the result that the bare rules are so brought to bear on me that I am made even to lose what I have already got in addition to that which I hoped to get. I am perplexed and do not exactly know what to decide about my resignation at present. I am already taxed to the fullest extent by domestic troubles and mental worry and pain; and now comes another in addition. I beg to state that I am not prepared to lose what I am entitled to for my past service. At the same time, my family troubles which are hanging very heavily at my doors, require immediate attention. It was with this object of Settling down these domestic affairs that I obtained the privilege leave which you were so kind enough to Sanction. I have only made a beginning and it requires pretty long time to come to the end. At the present stage I cannot leave them adrift, and revert to my duty, for fear that further neglect will produce dis astrous results. Now that it has been pointed out that my application is prepostorous, I have to Correct the Same, as I find no reason or such great hurry to rush into an act whereby I derive no benefit. I therefore solicit that 2 years' furlough may kindly be granted (i enable me to attend to my business, with the assurance that I will return to duty after the expiry of my leave.
